Information:

The Anthology Idea Exchange is the best way to share your ideas and needs with Anthology. Our product team reviews these ideas on a regular basis and will ask for feedback where needed, as well as update the status so you know the latest information. Once you add an idea, vote on an idea, or comment on an idea, you will automatically get notified when any updates are made! Making the Idea Exchange the quickest way to share your idea with Anthology and learn what we are doing with all our clients' ideas.

Please join us in shaping our solutions!

Accessing the Anthology Idea Exchange: Please visit <https://community.anthology.com/idea-exchange> and select the forum for the product where you have an idea to share.

PINNED Distinguish Goals from Outcomes

If goals and outcomes could be more distinguishable from each other, by more than just a number, this would be great. My idea was to either be able to indent Intended Outcomes underneath a goal, so that users would be able to distinguish that a se...
